Through it all he must rely on his own resourcefulness, ingenuity, and talents to survive this summer in the haymeadow. Farmer George Plants a Nation Boyd's Mills Press This picture book for older readers focuses on George Washington as farmer, inventor, and scientist. He invented a combination plow-tiller-harrow, tested different fertilizers, and bred donkeys and horses to create strong mules. His goal to make Mount Vernon self-sufficient carried over to his goal to make the new country independent. Layne Johnson's richly colored oil paintings portray the Colonial era with fine details. The book includes a timeline of Washington's life; shares his views on slavery, and includes a bibliography of additional reading materials and websites.
